

Savanna Camps Info

Mayo Oldiri (Zone 25)

Located between two National Parks: "Bouba Njida" and "La Benoue", it's the first camp that they acquired and the biggest camp they have in the savannah. This is a perfect area for eland during mid-season and the best one they have for buffalo and antelopes. There are thousands of kobs there. It has a fly camp called Mayo Gava.

Mayo Nduell (Zone 20)

A small camp a plentiful variety of game all season long. This camp was used for many years by a French President, so the good is the hunting here.

Djibao (Zone 23)

Located on the Eastern border of Bouba Ndjida National Park. New eland SCI records have been taken here for several years. This area has plenty eland all the season long. Also very good for elephant, but does not have a lot of antelopes.

Mayo Vaimba (Zone 11)

Characterized by being full of elands in the early season. Elephant are also plentiful here.

Rey Bouba (Zone 10)

A brand new hunting area with comfortable new accommodations. This area does not have big game, but has nice antelopes.
